NORTH GWINNETT CLUSTER PARENT NIGHT

Tuesday, January 27, 2015

7:00 PM – 8:30 PM

North Gwinnett High School Theater
20 Level Creek Road N.E.

Presenters

The Importance of Being More than Smart for Top College Entrance

School Psychologist Dr. Rudy Jackson Jr.

Vanderbilt University & Davidson College

Dr. Jackson uses his expertise and experience as a School Psychologist and College Professor/Administrator at Davidson College and Vanderbilt University to reveal what matters most in the college admission process at top colleges and universities. An evaluation of K-12 programs such as gifted education, honors, advanced placement, and supplemental training (i.e., tutoring, SAT/ACT prep) will be discussed in terms of their pay off in the admission process and later college success. Dr. Jackson will also provide strategies for managing the stress and anxiety that many college bound students report, especially those who take the most rigorous classes, participate in multiple extracurricular activities, and desire to attend a highly selective institution.

Being Prudent with Children and the Internet: Relevant and up to Date Information on the Cyber World

District Attorney Danny Porter

Gwinnett County, Georgia

Danny's career with the Gwinnett County District Attorney's office began in September 1981, immediately upon graduation from the University of Georgia School of Law. He served as a Trial Assistant for three years and was then promoted to Senior Assistant District Attorney. Subsequently, he was assigned as head of the Trial Division of the D.A. office supervising trial attorneys. Danny also assumed the additional duties of the Drug Prosecutor and began the organization of a special drug prosecution unit. Danny was elected District Attorney of Gwinnett County in November 1992.
